

---

Ms. Michelle L. Belton

Director, HR Operations Office of Civilian Human Resources

Ms. Belton serves as the Director, Human Resources (HR) Operations, Office of Civilian Human Resources. She leads five regional HR Operations Centers that deliver services and products to 19 Department of the Navy CONUS and OCONUS commands and supporting a worldwide civilian workforce of 225,000 in 12 separate personnel systems. Ms. Belton represents, assists and advises the Director, Office of Civilian Human Resources (OCHR), Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Civilian Personnel) DASN (CP), and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Manpower and Reserve Affairs) (ASN (M&RA)) in the delivery of timely and effective HR services.

Ms. Belton has more than 17 years of federal service and previously served as the Deputy Chief Human Capital Officer of the Government Accountability Office (GAO). She also served as the Director, Headquarters Department of the Army Civilian Personnel Advisory Center and as the Director, Civilian Human Resources Center, National Capital Region Medical Directorate, Defense Health Agency, where she provided support to two of the nation's largest Joint Military Treatment Facilities: Walter Reed National Military Medical Center and Fort Belvoir Community Hospital.

Ms. Belton holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania and a Master of Public Policy Degree from the University of Maryland College Park.

She has received numerous awards including the US Comptroller General's Integrity Award (2020), the Defense Distinguished Civilian Service Award (2017) and the Department of the Army Superior Civilian Service Award (2017 and 2020).